

ALMIN ORMAN

Winger · Age 11 · Both foot · Independent

Overall Development Score: 8/10

Player Type: Goal-Scoring Winger

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

Almin is a very direct and exciting attacking player who loves to run at defenders. His best quality is his confidence and skill with the ball at his feet, especially when moving at high speed. He has a great burst of acceleration to get away from opponents and keeps the ball under very close control. What really stands out is his composure in front of goal; he showed in the clip that he can finish calmly under pressure from a difficult angle. He's the type of player who can create a goal for himself out of nothing.

SCORE OVERVIEW

Attribute	Score	Notes
Technical	8/10	Composite technical ability
Tactical	7/10	Composite tactical intelligence
Physical	9/10	Composite physical attributes
Mentality	9/10	Composite mental attributes
Overall Development	8/10	Overall development indicator

TECHNICAL ANALYSIS

Attribute	Score	Notes
First Touch	8/10	His first touch is excellent for setting himself up to attack. He knocks the ball forward into space, allowing him to immediately run at the defender.
Ball Control	9/10	He keeps the ball on a string while running at pace. It never gets too far away from him, which is why he can beat his man and still get a clean shot off.
Dribbling	9/10	He shows fantastic confidence to take his man on. He uses a quick change of direction and speed to go past the defender effectively.
Passing	6/10	This clip is all about his goal, so we didn't get a chance to see him pass the ball. To be a complete attacker, knowing when to pass is just as important as dribbling.
Shooting	9/10	The finish was top-class for a player his age. From a tight angle with the keeper coming out, he showed great technique to slot it into the far corner.
Weak Foot	6/10	He scored a great goal with his left foot. We didn't see him use his right foot in the clip, so continuing to practice with it is very important.
One V One	9/10	He is clearly very comfortable and confident in 1v1 situations. He backs himself to beat the defender every time, which is exactly what you want from a winger.

TACTICAL ANALYSIS

Attribute	Score	Notes
Positioning	8/10	In this clip, he started in a perfect position out wide. This gave him the space he needed to receive the ball and start his run.
Off Ball Movement	6/10	We couldn't see his movement to get the ball in this short video. Finding empty space before the ball comes is a key skill to keep working on.
Scanning	6/10	It's hard to see from this angle, but the best players are always looking over their shoulder. This helps them know where defenders and teammates are before they even get the ball.
Decision Making	9/10	His decision-making on this play was perfect. He chose the right moment to take the defender on, and the right moment to shoot for goal.

Timing Of Runs	7/10	While we didn't see the start of the run, he clearly timed it well to receive the ball in a dangerous area with space to attack.
Game Understanding	8/10	He showed a great understanding of his job as an attacker here. He knew his goal was to get past his man and create a chance, and he did it perfectly.

PHYSICAL ANALYSIS

Attribute	Score	Notes
Acceleration	9/10	His first few steps are incredibly quick. That initial burst of speed after his first touch is what leaves defenders behind.
Speed	8/10	He maintains a very high speed over distance, even with the ball at his feet. He looks like one of the faster players on the pitch.
Balance	9/10	His balance is excellent, especially when changing direction. He never looks off-balance, which helps him keep control of the ball when dribbling.
Agility	8/10	He moves very smoothly and can change direction quickly. This agility is key to how he beats defenders in tight spaces.
Intensity	8/10	He plays with real purpose when he gets the ball. You can see his determination to attack the goal from the moment he starts running.
Body Control	9/10	He has fantastic control over his body, even when running at top speed. This allows him to dribble, change direction, and shoot all in one fluid motion.

MENTALITY ANALYSIS

Attribute	Score	Notes
Confidence	10/10	You can see he is brimming with confidence. He's not afraid to take risks, run at defenders, and take a shot when the chance is there.
Work Rate	6/10	This was a brilliant attacking run, showing great effort going forward. In a full game, we'd want to see that same energy when tracking back to help defend.
Courage In Duels	9/10	He is very brave on the ball and doesn't shy away from a challenge. He actively looks to take his opponent on, which is a fantastic quality.
Response To Mistakes	7/10	He didn't make any mistakes in this clip, which is great. How a player reacts after losing the ball is also very important, and something to watch for.
Competitive Mindset	9/10	He clearly has a strong desire to win his individual battle and make a difference in the game. He plays like he wants to be the one to score the winning goal.

Focus	9/10	From the moment he received the ball, he was completely focused on the goal. He wasn't distracted and knew exactly what he wanted to do.
-------	------	--

SCOUT VIEW · HOW A SCOUT MIGHT ASSESS THIS PLAYER

Key Strengths

- Running at defenders with speed and confidence
- Excellent close control of the ball while dribbling fast
- Calm and clinical finishing in front of goal
- Great acceleration and balance

Areas of Concern

- We didn't see his passing or link-up play with teammates
- Use of his weaker (right) foot is an unknown
- Defensive contribution couldn't be judged from this clip

Development Priorities

- Become just as comfortable shooting with his right foot
- Practice looking up to spot a teammate's run after beating a defender
- Work on different types of finishes: low driven shots, chips, etc.
- In training, focus on working hard to win the ball back after losing it

Appropriate Next Competitive Level

Ready to be a key attacking player on any strong team at his age level.

Positional Suitability

Best as a winger on the left or right, where he can get the ball and run at people. He could also be very effective as a forward.

This is an independent development analysis and does not guarantee selection or advancement opportunities.

POTENTIAL ASSESSMENT

Current Level: A high-level attacking player for his age group with game-changing ability.

Development Potential: He has very high potential. His natural gifts for speed and dribbling are things you can't teach, and he could become a truly special attacking player as he grows.

Recommended Next Step: Continue playing at the highest level possible to be consistently challenged by strong, fast defenders.

3-Month Focus: The main goal should be to become a two-footed threat. Aim to score a goal in a game with his right foot.

PERSONAL TRAINING PLAN

Five Specific Exercises

1v1 to Goal · 15 min

Have a friend or parent act as a defender. Start 25 yards out, run at them, try a move to beat them, and then take a shot on goal.

Weaker Foot Finishing · 10 min

Take 20 shots from just inside the penalty box using only your right foot. Focus on accuracy and hitting the corners, not just power.

Dribble, Look, Pass · 15 min

Dribble quickly towards a cone, and just as you get there, look up and play a pass to a moving teammate or a target. This helps with vision while running.

Cone Weaving - Both Feet · 10 min

Set up 6-8 cones in a line and weave in and out of them. Go through once with your left foot, once with your right, and once using both.

Reaction Finishing · 10 min

Stand with your back to goal. Have someone roll a ball past you on either side and shout 'Turn!', then you turn and shoot first time.

Weekly Focus

Each training session this week, make a special effort to use your right foot. In warm-ups, in passing drills, and if you get a chance near goal, don't be afraid to take a shot with it. Also, try to beat at least one player every time you get the ball in a dangerous area.

30-Day Development Plan

Over the next month, your main goal is confidence with both feet. The aim is to feel just as comfortable taking a touch with your right foot as your left. In games, also look for opportunities where after you beat a player, you can slide a pass to a teammate for an easy goal.

90-Day Development Plan

By the end of the next three months, we want you to be a nightmare for defenders because they won't know which way you're going to go. You'll be able to go left or right, and shoot with either foot. The aim is to become a player who not only scores great goals but also sets up teammates to score too.

VIDEO COMMENTS

0:05 · This is a great first touch. He pushes it perfectly into the space he wants to run into.

0:08 · Really confident and positive dribbling. He runs right at the defender and uses a simple, quick move to get past him.

0:11 · What a calm finish. From a tough angle with the keeper rushing out, he places it perfectly in the far corner. That's a natural goalscorer.

General · His speed while keeping the ball so close to his feet is his most dangerous weapon. It makes him very difficult to defend against.

FINAL SUMMARY

Almin is a player with the natural tools to be a real game-changer. His speed, dribbling skill, and fearless attitude when attacking are fantastic. He already has the gift of being a great goalscorer. As he continues to develop his weaker foot and his ability to create for teammates, he's going to become an even more complete and dangerous player. Keep working hard and, most importantly, keep enjoying the game.

Scores presented as developmental guidance, not definitive scouting evaluations. Independent feedback only.